

Please Post
POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA, TAMPA CAMPUS
COLLEGE OF THE ARTS, SCHOOL OF MUSIC

USF invites applications from scholars with a demonstrated commitment to one or more of the University's strategic thrusts in community engagement; global literacy and impact; and integrated, interdisciplinary inquiry.

Position	Assistant/Associate professor. Director of Choral Activities, tenure-earning, nine-month appointment. Start date August 7, 2010
Salary	Commensurate with qualifications and experience.
Minimum Qualifications	Master's degree in Music, ABDs considered. Evidence of successful teaching at a collegiate level, and a research/creative portfolio that suggests likelihood of meeting academic rigors associated with a research university.
Preferred Qualifications	Earned doctorate in music. A record of successful choral conducting and the ability to recruit, create and maintain a successful choral program.
Duties	Will serve as Director of Choral Activities, conduct choral ensembles, teach choral conducting, maintain active research/creative agenda, and engage in professional service. We expect the successful candidate to contribute his or her service to the University, community and profession.
Application	Interested and qualified candidates should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, at least three references with contact information. Secondary materials may be asked for at a later time. Please do not submit additional materials until requested. Online applications must be completed at: https://employment.usf.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=51053. Additional materials may be sent to: Brad Diamond, Chair Director of Choral Activities Search USF School of Music 4202 E. Fowler Ave., FAH 110 Tampa, FL 33620 For full consideration, applications must be received by December 7, 2009. Special notice: The Master Chorale of Tampa Bay is also engaged in a search for an Artistic Director. Candidates are urged to apply for both positions. Information about the Master Chorale position can be obtained from: http://www.masterchorale.com/
School	The School of Music, a full member of NASM, is a prominent constituent of the College of The Arts. Current initiatives of the School include an expansion of national and international reputation, of research/creative productivity, and of graduate studies. The School offers the B. M., B. A., B. S., M. M., and Ph.D. degrees and 34 full-time faculty, 24 visiting and adjunct faculty and over 308 undergraduate majors and 100 graduate students. A new 104,000 square foot building for the School of Music is presently under construction and should be open for the Spring 2011 semester. The School of Music's website is http://music.arts.usf.edu . The USF School of Music community represents a broad array of culture and ethnicity, and it is committed to embracing diversity in its curriculum and its faculty, staff and students.
College	The College of The Arts offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs and enrolls over 1400 majors. Within the college there are four academic schools: the School of Architecture and Community Design; the School of Art and Art History; School of Music, and the School of Theatre and Dance along with the Institute for Research in Art comprised of the Contemporary Art Museum and Graphicstudio. Please review our home page at http://www.arts.usf.edu ; you will find a link to the USF home page at our site.
University	The University of South Florida System is one of the nation's top 63 public research universities and one of the 39 community-engaged, four-year public universities as designated by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. USF was awarded $380.4 million in research contracts and grants in 2008/2009. The system offers 232 degree programs at the undergraduate, graduate, specialist and doctoral levels, including the Doctor of Medicine. It has a $1.8 billion annual budget, an annual economic impact of $3.2 billion, and serves more than 47,000 students on institutions/campuses in Tampa, St. Petersburg, Sarasota-Manatee and Lakeland. USF is a member of the Big East Athletic Conference.
Community	The Tampa Bay Area has a culturally diverse population of 2.5 million. Its historic Ybor City, the former cigar capital of the world, is a thriving center for jazz, blues and alternative music, experimental theatre, poetry and art. The University has convenient access to four major performing arts centers, including the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center, the largest in the Southeast. The Tampa Bay Area is the home of the Florida Orchestra and also benefits from several local professional theater and dance companies. Rounding out its diverse cultural atmosphere are several museums including the Dali Museum, the Museum of Science and Industry, and numerous galleries. Residents enjoy a year-round comfortable climate, professional sports teams, close proximity to several Gulf Coast beaches, and a wealth of leisure-time activities.

The University of South Florida is an equal opportunity, equal access and affirmative action employer. Women, minorities, veterans and persons with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply for this position. The search and selection process will be conducted in accordance with provisions of the Government in the Sunshine laws of the State of Florida. Meetings of the search committee are open to the public. All documents related to the search are available for public inspection. For additional information or disability accommodations please contact Amy Fletcher at 813/974-2311 or FAX: 813/974-8721 at least five working days in advance of need.